THE HARVEST FESTIVAL.

THIS took place, as announced, on S. Matthew's Day, Sept. 21, and was continued on Sunday, the 24th. The Festival began with a Celebration at 8 a.m., when but a few met together to join in the highest service of "praise and thanksgiving."

The Church was well filled in the evening, when Canon Townend preached an admirable sermon from Psalm civ. 23, "Man goeth forth to his work and to his labour until the evening."

The musical part of the service was well rendered; we must congratulate the choir on the good result of their hard work during the last few weeks. The anthem by Stainer, "O clap your hands," was sung during the service, and Jackson's Te Deum appropriately closed it.

On Sunday morning the sermon was preached by the Rev. A. L. Sayers, as the Rector of Rame, who had promised to come, was detained in London. Goss's anthem, "Fear not, O land," was beautifully sung by the choir at the morning service, while "O clap your hands" was repeated in the evening. The offertories were for the Curate Fund, and amounted to a little over £6.

The work of decorating the Church was completed the day before the Festival, and as many willing helpers came forward it was done in good time. The Church looked very pretty when it was finished, and very bright in the evening, when the long rows of candles were lighted. Mr. Waterman kindly sent men to put up posts for the candles, though neither he nor his daughters were able to be present in person, owing to recent bereavement. With his usual kindness, the Earl of Mount Edgcumbe sent a large supply of plants, flowers, and fruit. Flowers, fruit, and vegetables were also kindly contributed by the Misses Lewellin, Captain and Mrs. March, Mr. Hill, of Millbrook, and Miss Hay.

ON Oct. 8 Evensong will be held at Cremyll at 6-15, and will be continued during the winter months.

LECTURE ON HEALTH.

WE are sure that all who heard Mrs. Goslett's lectures on nursing last year will be glad to know that she is coming to this neighbourhood on Oct. 15. She has kindly promised to deliver two lectures, one at Millbrook in the afternoon and another in Cawsand School at 8 o'clock in the evening. The lectures are primarily intended for members of the G.F.S., but other women and girls will be welcome. Full particulars will be given on the handbills, which will be distributed shortly. We hope that the room will be well filled, not only on account of the useful knowledge we shall learn (important though that is), but also to show Mrs. Goslett how much we appreciate her kindness in paying us a second visit.

THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY.

WE omitted to mention last month that at the Branch Festival in August, Eliza Francis, Kate Littleton, and Lillie Booth were each presented with a card for three years' faithful membership.

THE NEW VICAR OF MILLBROOK.

WE are heartily glad to congratulate our neighbours on the appointment that has been made by Lord Mount Edgcumbe to the Vicarage of Millbrook. The Rev. Henry Richard Jennings was formerly Curate to Canon Townend in Penzance, and since 1890 has been Vice-Chancellor of Truro Cathedral. Such an important parish as Millbrook needs a man of exceptional powers, and we have reason to believe that in Mr. Jennings the requirements will be fully met. We rejoice to think that the good work begun and continued by the late Vicar will be carried on with unabated zeal by the new incumbent. We most heartily wish him "God-speed."

Baptisms.

- Sept. 18—Ida Blanche, daughter of John and Alice Thomas
22—Alice Maude, daughter of Charles James and Sarah Emily Bertram

Burials.

- Sept. 21—William Richard Lyuo, of Cremyll, aged 86
25—Albert Edward George Trevelthan, aged 1 year

RAME.

EVER since we commenced the present issue of our Parish Magazine, in 1895, we have had a fearful dread upon us! Fortunately it has not hitherto been realised, but now it is upon us in all its horror! This month we are very short of parochial news, and we have little or no hope of finding "copy" wherewith to fill our parochial page!! And the "shortage" is all the more provoking because last month we overflowed and occupied quite a page and a half!

We will not dilate on the usual "summer madness" that seizes many in Cawsand in August, and set in with considerable force this year, because the picnics and other delights by day and moonlight were of private rather than parochial interest. It was, however, a source of grief to us that we were not able to organise an entertainment similar to those we have had in other Augusts, whereby at once to rejoice the hearts of natives and visitors and to put our Sunday School and other funds outside the Church Expenses accounts on a satisfactory footing. We could, indeed, have provided—thanks to the promises of several distinguished amateurs—both vocal and instrumental music sufficient for the first part of the programme, but our experience of Cawsand audiences is that they do not "fill the house" unless the performers are our day scholars or something dramatic is put upon the stage. And this year the "something dramatic" was just what we could not manage, and the idea of an entertainment was abandoned, or at least postponed. We have, however, pleasure in acknowledging three donations of a guinea each, and if other friends will come forward with £5 or £6 more we shall be financially on our legs again. For the benefit of those who cannot give a guinea we assure our readers that the smallest contributions will be thankfully received, and larger ones more so! It is really ludicrous to have to confess that, writing as we are, far from our account books, we cannot remember the name of one of the gentlemen who contributed, though his face is clear to our mind's eye—but it is the simple truth! Perhaps next month we shall be able to publish a much longer list of subscribers. At any rate, we hope so, if our readers will only take the hint we are most delicately trying to administer!

Everybody was grieved to hear of Miss Budge's indisposition. It was strange not to meet her for a while about the village. However, she very wisely took her illness before the summer was over, and, we hope, derived great benefit from the moorland air of Whitchurch.

Mr. Darley is getting up a club—to meet for the present in the committee room—for the boys, and will gladly receive contributions towards the cost of draughts and other games.

On Monday, Sept. 18, the Rector went up to London for the bare "inside of the week" on urgent private affairs, and is not back yet! Most unexpected delays have prevented his return, and what he would have done without the kind help of the Revs. F. W. Briggs and B. B. Liptrott we do not know. It was most provoking to be absent from the Harvest Festival. We were at least constantly with our Cawsand friends in spirit. The same reason must also be our excuse for deferring an account of the Bible Society's meeting in Cawsand.
